

WATER AWARENESS

The children access water from these tanks to water our herbs and vegetables. The water is also used for outdoor water play. The children are made aware that we can use the water if it has rained and our tanks have water in them.