

ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION

We made recycled paper as part of World Environment Day. The children enjoyed the process of tearing the paper up, mixing it and then being very careful arranging it in our wooden frame. They then had to wait and watch until it dried.